ORDER:

The present writ petition is filed by the petitioner-company for declaring the action of the respondents, in summoning the employees, director, officers of the petitioner company on the pretext of investigation by registering cases as being without any jurisdiction, is violative of Articles 14 and 21 of the Constitution of India.

A detailed counter affidavit has been filed by the Inspector of Police, wherein it is stated that the employees, officers and director of the petitioner company were summoned to the office of the Central Crime Station (South Zone), Detective Department for the purpose of investigation in the cases pending against the petitioner company. So, the allegation that the interference of the respondents in the company affairs, is denied.

Admittedly, several cases have been registered against the petitioner's company. It is for the police to conduct investigation, as it is their statutory duty and their statutory duty cannot be curtailed.

Therefore, recording the submissions made in the counter-affidavit, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs.

Justice K.C.BHANU.

15th September 2005.
